The True Issue.

I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I expect the public mind to be awakened. I will be all one thing or the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it in the course of ultimate extinction; or its advocates will push it forward, till it shall become a world-wide evil, old as well as new—north as well as south.
—Abraham Lincoln.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A FURTHER SLAVE CODE.
WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THESE THINGS
BY CONGRESS OR BY COURTS. THE PEOPLE OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE PEOPLE OF THESE UNITED STATES AND THE COURTS MUST NOT OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION BUT TO UPHOLD IT. WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THESE THINGS BY CONGRESS OR BY COURTS.
—Thos. Jefferson and the Ordinance of 1787.

The Democrat of this city has assumed, several times to set us right as to the history of the ordinance of 1787, and the connection which Jefferson had with the free-soil proviso which it contains. It invariably asserts that its statements are facts, while ours are not. We propose to prove our assertions, as we proceed, leaving the public to judge what is the truth.

It is admitted that Mr. Jefferson was the author of the first ordinance reported to congress organizing the north-west territory in 1784, which was all the territory then possessed by the general government. It is not important to the question at issue what were all the provisions of that ordinance, since it was not enacted under our present constitution, and never went into effect. We only refer to the first draft as reported by Jefferson to show that he was in favor of excluding slavery from all the territory owned by the government, in 1784; that the same proviso in substance and spirit was adopted as a part of the ordinance of 1787, and therefore that Jefferson was really the author of the anti-slavery proviso of that time, and of the Wilmot proviso of our day.

The following is the provision in the original draft of the ordinance of 1784, now existing in the hand-writing of Mr.
Jefferson:

After the year 1800 of the christian era, there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in any of the said states (which should be framed out of said territories) otherwise than in the punishment of crimes, of which parties shall have been indicted.

This was rejected by congress, in the manner we have before stated, and was, therefore, not a part of the ordinance of 1784, as it passed that body.

It is not absurd for the Democrat to pretend, after reading this explicit exclusion of slavery, that the same Jeffersonian ordinance which contained it, provided that if the people of the territories thus organized wanted slavery, no power on earth could prevent it, and that they were left to decide the question for themselves!

The territory under this ordinance had not been "purchased of the Indians," as the Democrat says, but treaties have since been made with them in the whole of the north-west territory, in which compensation has been made to them for their lands.— How long is it since the Indian title was extinguished in Wisconsin? This is historical blunder number two, of that exceedingly wise man who writes for the Democrat.

This writer also attempts to convey the impression that Virginia and the other states coupled with their cession the condition that slavery should not be excluded from this territory. This is wholly untrue, and we challenge proof to the contrary.
Would Jefferson have reported an ordinance, (that of 1784,) which violated a stipulation made by his own state? This is historic mistake number three on the part of the Democrat.

In 1787 another ordinance was adopted, which was the only act organizing the northwest territory that ever went into practical effect. This was passed by congress almost immediately after the ratification of the present constitution, and by men who undoubtedly understood the intended meaning of that instrument. That ordinance sometimes called the "Jeffersonian ordinance," because it so nearly carried out the original design of Jefferson, and particularly his purpose, (which had been frustrated,) of making that territory free soil forever, expressly set forth that the ordinance of 1784, differing in some respects, was "hereby repealed and declared null and void." But the restrictive principle of Jefferson's provision was engrafted into the ordinance of 1787, and was as follows:

ART. 6. There shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the said territory, otherwise than in the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been indicted: Provided always, that any person escaping into the same, from whom labor or service is lawfully claimed in any one of the original states, such fugitive may be lawfully reclaimed, and conveyed to the person claiming his or her labor or service as aforesaid.

Thus was slavery prohibited from all the territory which now constitutes the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, through the influence of Thomas Jefferson, and almost in the very words which he had, three years previously, drawn up for that purpose. This was done, be it remembered, by many who had helped to form our present constitution, and the act was signed by Washington. It not only excluded slavery, but it abolished it, because there were at the time a few slaves in southern Illinois, held by the old French settlers.
Thus it proved that the "fathers" thought it was right and constitutional to drive human bondage from the territories and keep it out forever. If there were any slaves there after the ordinance of 1787 was adopted, it was in defiance of law. The people of Indiana petitioned to be allowed to have slaves white in a territorial condition; the petition was referred to a committee in congress, of which John Randolph was chairman; he reported against it, and congress coincided with him in the opinion that it was inexpedient to permit them to do so.

There is no truth whatever in the statement that Mr. Jefferson was opposed to the free soil proviso of the ordinance of 1787.
If the letters generally quoted by the Democrat contain any such sentiments, the extracts can be furnished, and we invite them to the task of making them public, or of acknowledging that they have made another historic mistake.

We have not time to pursue this subject further to-day, but we think it has been clearly shown that the doctrine of intervention against slavery in the territories, originated with Thomas Jefferson, was sanctioned by Washington, Madison, and many others who framed the constitution. The republican doctrine of to-day is identical with it and having been tested by experience and sanctioned by the fathers of the revolution, is the true and only successful method of dealing with slavery in the territories at this time.

The attention of Douglas men is called to the article from the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat. We have no doubt that thousands of democrats in the north will coincide with its conclusions, and vote for Lincoln.

SENATOR IN MILWAUKEE.—George A.
Starkweather is the republican candidate for the senate in Milwaukee county. Mr. Comstock, republican, who beat Jackson Hadley two years ago, is the present member.
Mr. Starkweather has represented the Otesgo (N. Y.) district in congress, and was until recently, in association with the democratic party. He is an able and popular man, and may succeed in saving the district to the republicans.

BETTING IN NEW YORK.—The Democrat parades a bet of $20,000 by Dean Richmond that New York will vote against Lincoln. This is probably the bet Richmond made with James S. Wadsworth of Geneseo, where Wadsworth bet on 40,000 majority for Lincoln. Extract all the comfort you can from such a bet as that.

The Democrat asserts that Curtin, the governor elect of Pennsylvania, "has been down in Massachusetts stamping it for Bell and Everett." This is the first time and only place we have seen this statement, and this is alone sufficient to stamp it as a falsehood.

AN IMPORTANT ACCESSION.—Hon. Chas.
R. Gil, at present senator from the Watertown district in this state, always until now a democrat, has announced his determination to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin. He says he will not vote indirectly for Joe Lane for president. He also supports Judge Sloan. Senator Gil and Carl Schurz are announced to speak at Watertown on Thursday.

The Democrat says that Lincoln and Hamlin voted against extending the Missouri compromise to the Pacific. We do not know whether this is so or not. We should be inclined to doubt it, seeing that the Democrat makes the assertion; but if they did so vote, Douglas furnished them with a good reason, when he said that, "by the constituted authority of Mexico, slavery was prohibited in Mexico at the time of the acquisition, and that prohibition was acquired by us with the soil." See Congressional Globe, vol. 22, part 1, page 343. This being true, the running of the Missouri compromise line to the Pacific would have established slavery on the south side of it where the soil was already free.

A REMARKABLE ARTICLE.

We are in daily receipt of letters from political friends, filled with anxious inquiries concerning the present state of the presidential question, and desiring an expression of our views to the probable influence of the election of the Ninth upon the prospects of candidates, and with reference to the various platforms of principles really at issue before the people, and which we do not hesitate to respond to these inquiries; and the less so because it is a part of our duty to treat of such matters, candidly and frankly, even in the absence of friendly solicitations.

In the first place, then, we think the result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, demonstrate, beyond all reasonable ground for doubt, that those states will go for Lincoln in November, and by vastly increasing majorities. The disgusting corrupt scheme of fusion which has been carried out in Ohio and Indiana, and completely in Pennsylvania, has been repudiated by the people of those states, and emphatically and justly. It cannot be assumed that the people of other states in which the canvass has been made up according to the fusion programme, will act with any less honesty and intelligence, when the time comes for them to vote. We think, therefore, that New York will follow in the wake of her sister Middle States, with a majority of from one to two hundred thousand against the fusion outrage, and we think further, that the people of that state will vindicate their reputation for moral honesty and political decency by such a vote.
And, inasmuch as the poisonous influence of this Fusion Upas has been extended beyond the states in which it was planted, demoralizing the democracy, destroying their hopes and paralyzing their efforts, we cannot believe otherwise than that the whole north will go for LINCOLN—rendering the vote of the free states, for the first time in our history, purely sectional in its character.

In the second place, we think the influence of the elections of the ninth will be to sectionalize the vote of the south. The south must view the results in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, as determining the election of Lincoln. The natural impulse of the southern mind will be to meet northern radicalism with the radicalism of its own section. There is not time enough left to organize a new conservative movement in the south of sufficient strength to combat and conquer the sectional passions, which already excited, will be inflamed to madness by the elections of the ninth. The people of Douglas's party, in the south, with an heart, because they cannot look for a northern response in a solitary electoral vote. The south cannot unite on Bell, because running on no distinctive platform, support of him would mean nothing and determine nothing. We may, therefore, look to see every Slave State go for Breckinridge.

If these premises are correct, Douglas, and the principles which he represents, are, practically speaking, no longer at issue in this campaign. The canvass is reduced, by indications which are prophetic, to the issue of a short and sharp battle, between Lincoln and a Free Code on the one hand, and Breckinridge and a Slave Code on the other. This is a result which all who cherish the peace and harmony of the Union must deplore; but, deplored or not, it is a plain fact, which cannot be gained or obliterated, and which should, therefore, be looked at and acted upon as such, frankly and manfully. And being a fact, the voice of the north, in the expression of its sentiments at the polls, will neither be feeble nor uncertain. A million majority will show the fidelity of the northern masses to the principles of their section, when these are appealed to by an issue which cannot be avoided or delayed.

The northern democracy are not responsible for the sectional character which the canvass has assumed. It has been precipitated by the ultraists of the south. Taking its birth in the jealousies of southern politicians against the manliest statesman of our times, the movement has grown up from its ignoble beginnings in personal bitterness to its present proportions of warfare upon civilization and of treason against the state. They who have thus sown the wind must reap the whirlwind. The ultraists of the south must be exterminated. Until this is done there can be neither national peace nor national prosperity. We had hoped this might be achieved through the agency of Douglas, in the present campaign. That hope has vanished. Yet, regarding it as the first great act needful to be done, we shall greet its accomplishment with satisfaction through any agency that Providence may appoint.—St. Paul Pioneer and Dem.
Douglas organ.

HOW FUSION WORKS IN NEW YORK.—The PACIFIC PLOT.—The New York Tribune says the fusion majority in that city cannot exceed 25,000, or may not go beyond 16,000.
The same paper, commenting on the panic in stocks, says:

"Desperate men adopt desperate expedients. The enemies of republicanism having been triumphantly confuted before the people by the calm and unimpassioned arguments of the friends of free labor, having been rebuffed by the voters of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, whose majority for freedom outran our warmest hopes, that the common sense of the country districts was fully aroused,—having perceived the utter failure of a fusion which does not and will not fuse in this state,—have at last played their last card, which will be, like all the rest, utterly useless to stay the inevitable result of Tuesday week. A leading jobber lately betrayed the plan when he remarked that 'nothing but a Wall street panic could save the state'; and that is precisely what we have anticipated and prepared for, and now has happened. In this city the plot key to our friends at a distance of this disgraceful transaction, of which the people who prize most noisily of peace and union, are the authors and managers.

The plot to produce a panic was organized some ten days since, and it was virtually initiated before that, at Washington, by Mr. Cobb, secretary of the treasury, who intended so to lay the pipe that the United States loan should not be taken. For ten years past, as he well knew, no five per cent. loan would have been sold on the 3d of March, and at that time money being always scarce at that season, by reason of the banks tightening themselves in order to move the cotton. This year the unusually heavy exports of produce, which were not anticipated by the conspirators, kept money cheap, and the loan was promptly sold, to the profound astonishment and dismay of Secretary Cobb and the conspiracy committee.— The first move having ludicrously failed, the second was made ready. A few gentlemen largely interested in the sale of the loan, and some bankers and stockjobbers, subscribed large sums of money for the purchase of each stock which has been largely thrown upon the market to repress the alarm. It was daily filled with lugubrious letters, dated in various southern states, and with panic leaders, which were not without a certain effect.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE.

Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 30.
The Morning's Journal says a remarkably shrewd, well informed politician recently from Washington, states that some of the Breckinridge leaders from the south, including Wigfall of Texas and Judge Meek of Alabama, agreed last Thursday upon a plan of action in case of Lincoln's election, viz: South Carolina, within 30 days after the election, would declare herself independent and send an ambassador to Washington asking for recognition. If recognized, other southern states would follow suit, and after a sufficient number of states are thus recognized a southern confederacy would be proclaimed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.
The jury in case of Wm. Bierny tried on the charge of forging the election returns of the 1st congressional district thus defeating Mr. Lehman the democratic candidate brought in verdict of guilty this morning.— His counsel will probably carry the case to the supreme court.

St. Joseph, Oct. 30.
The pony express with California dates to the 17th inst. arrived here this morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.
The pony express with St. Louis dates to the 7th inst. is telegraphed from Carson Valley this morning. There is intense anxiety to receive the news of the next express to the 10th inst., when the result of the Pennsylvania election will be known.

The many reasons for the election of Foster elected, California will go for Douglas, while if Foster is defeated and the other northern state elections result in republican victories, California will go for Lincoln. It is generally conceded that the Breckinridge party is losing ground.

Col. E. D. Baker, senator elect from Oregon, is expected to make a tour of California for the benefit of the republican ticket.
Brevet Brigadier General Clark, commander of the department of California, died in this city to-day, of chronic diarrhoea, after two weeks illness has fairly commenced.

News from Oregon is unimportant. The democratic papers of both wings of that party, generally denounce the coalition which elected one republican senator.

Senator Crittenden addressed a large audience composed of all parties, at the court house, last night. Eulogized Douglas as a national man and a statesman, and his course in opposition to Lecompton. Urged upon men of all parties to vote for Bell, the only candidate whose success will give peace to the country. He concluded.—It will be my prayer that this Union may last beyond any calculation.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 30.
Vice President Breckinridge authorizes the announcement that the letter published over his signature, and signed by John L. Campbell, is a forgery, and that he has written no such letter.

The Market.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.
Flour dull and holders pressing it on the market; few buyers appear, and country spring offered at 4.20 to 4.30, 4.00 to 4.25 is offered for country extras, and 4.25 to 4.50 for city. Wheat market rather easier and sellers plenty at 85 to 87 1/2, but buyers, who occasionally paid as high as 86 1/2 cts will not offer above 85 1/2 cts, while most of them declare 85 1/2 cts their best figures; there being no vessels shippers held back and the market cannot be called very active at the close.

WHAT "OLD ABE" WILL DO.—The blustering of the south about "dissension" and "secession" is a fall for effect. If they cannot frighten the people into defeating Lincoln, the fire-eaters think they can at least scare him. But they mistake their man.

As an evidence of what may be expected of Mr. Lincoln as President, we quote an extract from a short speech made by him last winter at Leavenworth:

"While you elect Presidents we must submit, neither breaking or attempting to break up the Union. If we shall constitutionally elect a President, it will be our duty to see that you also submit. Old John Brown has been executed for treason against a state. We cannot object, even though he agreed with us in thinking slavery wrong.
That cannot excuse violence, bloodshed and treason. It could avail him nothing that he might think himself right. So, if constitutionally we elect a President, and, therefore, you undertake to destroy the Union, it will be our duty to deal with you as old John Brown has been dealt with. We shall try to do our duty. We hope and believe that in no section will a majority so act as to render such extreme measures necessary."

On Wednesday night, the residents in and around Arnold, Ulster county, N. Y., were startled by a short and sharp battle, the noise, followed by a trembling of the earth and shattering of windows. Many thought it was an earthquake, and great alarm and excitement was the consequence.
Several rushed from their houses; and the screams of the women were heard a considerable distance. It was found that the Powder Mills had blown up. The explosion was heard for several miles around, and even as far as Poughkeepsie. How it happened is not known. The mills were entirely demolished. Fortunately no person was in the building at the time. The loss is estimated at between three and four thousand dollars.

SOUTHERN UNION SENTIMENTS.—The Nashville (Tenn.) Banner, which most earnestly advocates the election of Bell and Everett, says:

"While we do not despair by any means, of defeating Lincoln before the people, and to that end would confound the friends of the Union everywhere, to rally to the union platform and the union candidates, and zealous of labor until the end, still we deem it none the less important that the people of the north should appreciate the fact that, in the event we are to be outvoted by a northern majority, there is a secondary consideration that will become of the first importance.— We believe a majority of the people of the south would be in favor, if brought to the test, of tolerating the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln up to that point, if it should ever reach it, which we have never believed it would, when he should violate the constitutional rights of the south, rather than resort to revolution, and civil upon the country the horrors of civil war."

Frank has been nominated for the assembly

Kenosha county.

Annual report of the Rock County Agricultural Society and Mechanic's Institute for the year 1890.

The society held its annual meeting on the first Monday of December, 1890, and elected J. F. Willard President. D. R. Spooner, Daniel Bennett, R. T. Powell, James Holmes, James Kirkpatrick and J. M. Leonard, Vice Presidents. J. A. Blount Secretary and David M. Clay Treasurer.

The regular quarterly meetings have been held during the year, and the regular annual fair was held at the society's grounds on the 18th, 19th, and 20th days of September, 1890.

The sum of twelve hundred and forty-eight dollars and fifty-three cents has been actually received into the treasury during the year and nine hundred and thirty-four dollars has been paid toward the account of indebtedness of the society. The actual expenses paid out were three hundred and seven dollars, leaving a balance of seven dollars in the treasury.

Another Misrepresentation.

If hard work and unscrupulous misrepresentations can effect the defeat of Mr. Graham, his enemies will certainly triumph. The opposition to him is one of the most vindictive and embittered warfares we have ever known in the city. It partakes strongly of the character of personal rancor, and no falsehood is too gross to invent and report about him. One of the falsehoods very industriously circulated, is that Mr. Graham is in favor of the extension of the Beloit railroad to Madison.

This statement is without the least color of truth. Mr. Graham has as great a pecuniary interest in the city as his competing candidate, and is as little likely to aid a project hostile to the business interests of the city as Mr. Richardson. And if he had no personal interest in the matter, his character as a man of integrity and correct principle would be a sufficient guarantee for him as a faithful representative of his constituents.

Judging from the manner in which the campaign has been thus conducted, the republicans of the city must be prepared for any statement that malice or long experience in falsehood can invent to disparage Mr. Graham, and aid in the scheme of electing a democrat to represent the city in the legislature. Will any republican be caught in the trap?

Gov. Randall's Speech.

The speech of Gov. Randall last night at the court room, was listened to by a large audience, many of whom were ladies. We can give none of the points of this excellent address, but it was argumentative, convincing and eloquent, throughout. We have never heard the governor when he did better. It may, perhaps, be said that he surpassed himself upon this occasion. The audience testified their appreciation of the effort by oft repeated cheers. The impression made was very favorable, and if Gov. Randall has been making such speeches throughout the campaign, he has done a good work for the republican cause.

Our Wide Awake Club was present, and by their stirring songs, added much to the interest of the meeting.

Lecture To-Night.—The lecture on "Woman's Sphere" will be given at the court room this evening. Don't forget it.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—W. A. Beach has been nominated for the assembly in the Spring Valley district, and Wm. S. Rockwell in the Beloit district. Mr. Rockwell consequently declines the nomination of district attorney, and the county committee have substituted D. L. C. Brooks of Beloit in his place, on the county ticket. The assembly nomination was first offered to N. D. Parker, who is a young convert in the democratic ranks, and declined by him. Mr. Rockwell wished to decline, but the convention would not let him.

APPOINTMENT OF SCHOOL MONEY.—There will be an extra apportionment of school money about the 15th of December next, according to the law of last winter, which we are informed will amount to not less than 14 cents per scholar, making for the year an apportionment of 64 cents per scholar, the same as for 1889. This apportionment is made from the interest not paid in previous to March 10th, on account of extension granted by the legislature to those who had interest to pay.

The amount of tax to be levied by the county board of supervisors must be half the sum of both apportionments, since the extra apportionment is made upon the same basis as that of last spring. County boards will be notified in due season of the amount necessary to be raised.

GREAT REDUCTION IN APPLES.—Roberts & Metcalf, in the Hyatt House block, are now selling choice Fall and Winter apples at $2.25 cts. per bbl.

Now is the time to buy your apples for this reduced price will not continue long.

A bunch of Keys has been left at this office for the owner.

THE GAS CONDUIT UP.—The work of constructing a telephone line between the Atlantic and Pacific is steadily progressing. The overland mail which arrived at Fort Smith Oct. 27th brings the gratifying announcement of the completion of the line to Los Angeles, on the 6th inst. Congratulatory messages passed between the mayor of Los Angeles and the president of the board of supervisors at San Francisco. Senator Latham set the first pole east from Los Angeles on the 8th and left for the states on the same day.

DEATH OF DR. EGAN.—Dr. Wm. B. Egan of Chicago died in that city last Saturday. The Richmond Enquirer editor declares that no one man in Virginia desires a dissolution of the Union.

LET EVERYBODY COME!

MEETING AT FULTON VILLAGE.—Like all the meetings now held in the country, that at Fulton village last evening was an encouraging one. The school house was literally packed. Des. Palmer, of Edgerton, presided. Speeches and good songs, too, were made by H. N. Comstock, J. M. Burgess, J. B. Cassiday, and Dr. Howe.

Dr. Howe has heretofore been a prominent and influential democrat of the town of Porter, and his speech last night, which was earnest, forcible and logical, aboved conclusively, that the doctor's change was one of principle. We have no doubt that hundreds of the more intelligent and honest democrats of this county are already convinced of the truth and necessity of republican principles, and are only restrained by a false pride from joining the republican party and voting according to the dictates of their consciences for Hon. Old Age.

The doctor speaks at Edgerton to-night.

A vote of thanks was tendered the speakers, and the meeting closed with hearty cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The republicans of Fulton mean to give the republican ticket a majority in their town, without fail.

A young man named Richard Kobbe, of Cincinnati, who killed a man named Guelich in that city a few days since in a quarrel, has given himself up to the authorities. His conscience would not allow him to rest until he had done so.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT

Rock County Agricultural Society.

Annual report of the Rock County Agricultural Society and Mechanic's Institute for the year 1860.

The society held its annual meeting on the first Monday of December, 1859 and elected J. F. Willard President. D. R. Spooner, Daniel Bennett, R. T. Powell, James Holmes, James Kirkpatrick and J. M. Leaned, Vice Presidents. J. A. Blount Secretary and David M. Clay Treasurer.

The regular quarterly meetings have been held during the year, and the regular annual fair was held at the society's grounds on the 18th, 19th, and 20th days of September, 1860.

The sum of twelve hundred and forty-eight dollars and fifty-three cents has been actually received into the treasury during the year and nine hundred and thirty-four dollars has been paid toward the account of indebtedness of the society. The actual expenses paid out were three hundred and seven dollars, leaving a balance of seven dollars in the treasury.

J. A. BLOUNT, Secretary.
Janesville, Oct. 30th, 1860.

Another Misrepresentation.

If hard work and unscrupulous misrepresentations can effect the defeat of Mr. Graham, his enemies will certainly triumph. The opposition to him is one of the most vindictive and embittered warfares we have ever known in the city. It partakes strongly of the character of personal rancor, and no falsehood is too gross to invent and report about him. One of the falsehoods very industriously circulated, is that Mr. Graham is in favor of the extension of the Beloit railroad to Madison.

This statement is without the least color of truth. Mr. Graham has as great a pecuniary interest in the city as his competing candidate, and is as little likely to aid a project hostile to the business interests of the city as Mr. Richardson. And if he had no personal interest in the matter, his character as a man of integrity and correct principle would be a sufficient guarantee for him as a faithful representative of his constituents.

Judging from the manner in which the campaign has been thus far conducted, the republicans of the city must be prepared for any statement that malice or long experience in falsehood can invent to disparage Mr. Graham, and aid in the scheme of electing a democrat to represent the city in the legislature. Will any republican be caught in the trap?

Gov. Randall's Speech.

The speech of Gov. Randall last night at the court room, was listened to by a large audience, many of whom were ladies. We can give none of the points of this excellent address, but it was argumentative, convincing and eloquent throughout. We have never heard the governor when he did better. It may, perhaps, be said that he surpassed himself upon this occasion. The audience testified their appreciation of the effort by oft repeated cheers. The impression made was very favorable, and if Gov. Randall has been making such speeches throughout the campaign, he has done a good work for the republican cause.

Our Wide Awake Glee club was present, and by their stirring songs, added much to the interest of the meeting.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—The lecture on "Woman's Sphere" will be given at the court room this evening. Don't forget it.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—W. A. Beach has been nominated for the assembly in the Spring Valley district, and Wm. S. Rockwell in the Beloit district. Mr. Rockwell consequently declines the nomination of district attorney, and the county committee have substituted D. L. C. Brooks of Beloit in his place, on the county ticket. The assembly nomination was first offered to N. D. Parker, who is a young convert in the democratic ranks, and declined by him. Mr. Rockwell wished to decline, but the convention would not let him.

APPOINTMENT OF SCHOOL MONEY.—There will be an extra apportionment of school money about the 15th of December next, according to the law of last winter, which we are informed will amount to not less than 14 cents per scholar, making for the year an apportionment of 64 cents per scholar, the same as for 1859. This apportionment is made from the interest not paid in previous to March 10th, on account of extension granted by the legislature to those who had interest to pay.

The amount of tax to be levied by the county board of supervisors must be half the sum of both apportionments, since the extra apportionment is made upon the same basis as that of last spring. County boards will be notified in due season of the amount necessary to be raised.

GREAT REDUCTION IN APPLES.—Roberts & Metcalf, in the Hyatt House block, are now selling choice Fall and Winter apples at $2.25 cts. per bibl.

Now is the time to buy your apples for this reduced price will not continue long.

A bunch of Keys has been left at this office for the owner.

THE GAP CLOSING UP.—The work of constructing a telegraph line between the Atlantic and Pacific is steadily progressing. The overland mail which arrived at Fort Smith Oct. 27th brings the gratifying announcement of the completion of the line to Los Angeles, on the 8th inst. Congratulatory messages passed between the mayor of Los Angeles and the president of the board of supervisors at San Francisco.—Senator Latham set the first pole from Los Angeles on the 8th and left for the states on the same day.

MEETING AT FULTON VILLAGE.—Like all the meetings now held in the country, that at Fulton village last evening was an encouraging one. The school house was literally packed. Dea. Palmer, of Edgerton, presided. Speeches, and good ones, too, were made by H. N. Comstock, J. M. Burgess, J. B. Cassiday, and Dr. Howe.

Dr. Howe has heretofore been a prominent and influential democrat of the town of Porter, and his speech last night, which was earnest, forcible and logical, showed conclusively, that the Doctor's change was one of principle. We have no doubt that hundreds of the more intelligent and honest democrats of this county are already convinced of the truth and necessity of republican principles, and are only restrained by a false pride from joining the republican party and voting according to the dictates of their consciences for Hon. Old Abe. The Doctor speaks at Edgerton to-night.

A vote of thanks was tendered the speakers, and the meeting closed with hearty cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The republicans of Fulton mean to give the republican ticket a majority in their town, without fail.

A young man named Richard Kobbe, of Cincinnati, who killed a man named Guelich in that city a few days since in a quarrel, has given himself up to the authorities. His conscience would not allow him to rest until he had done so.

T. H. GANTLEY, Proprietor.

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusively of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prospect as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it is rapidly and amply growing, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous. Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoy's. Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying
